

Massimo Casagrande

role

Programme Leader Fashion Design
Istituto Marangoni London School of Fashion

Massimo Casagrande pursued his fashion design studies at Istituto Marangoni in Milano, then he joined Versace, where he designed for Versus menswear, followed by Versace Sport and Versace Jeans.

After several years of experience as a Senior Tutor of Fashion Design at the UK school of Istituto Marangoni, Massimo is currently appointed as programme leader of the Fashion Design undergraduate courses at the London school. As a stylist and designer, he is also a contributor to fashion magazines such as Surface, Rodeo and Independent Style.

Massimo launched his own label MCG Massimo Casagrande in June 2012.

MCG Massimo Casagrande collections have featured on the catwalks of fashion shows in Paris, and in London as part of Fashion East.
