

Alessia Zambonin

role

Programme Leader Fashion Design
Istituto Marangoni School of Fashion Milano

After graduating at the Liceo Artistico in Milan, she transitioned into Istituto Marangoni, studying fashion and illustration design. She subsequently went on to work in different areas such as comic books, and character design for games and many worldwide renowned independent clients. Since 1997 she also collaborates with Istituto Marangoni Milan school as teacher in the subjects Fashion Drawing, Digital Illustration and Collection Design, becoming then Programme Leader in 2015 for the first years of the Fashion Design Department. As an illustrator she continues to delve into more diverse mediums, applying her foundations to a balance of traditional and innovative digital creations experimenting with new techniques and styles. Her illustrations have won contests, as well as been published on prestigious publications. The challenges of moulding the old with the new have enabled her to prove herself time and again, also as a teacher, where she pass on her passion for fashion and its ever-renewing quality.
