Fashion Business

The success of a new product does not only depend on the direct intrinsic characteristics of the product. It greatly relies on the creative, imaginative and strategic decisions made regarding the marketing campaign that accompanies the product throughout its life cycle.

You are to select one Fashion brand/product/service that already exists in the market, which you think could be effectively marketed with an alternative approach. You will propose a concept for a digital marketing campaign for this fashion product or service which promotes the brand in a previously unseen way, that would essentially include the following:

- § Use the existing branding of the chosen client – this is not a rebranding project.
- § Analyse the clients existing digital marketing strategy and target market.
- § Identify a new approach to promote/sell the client's product/brand to that market.
- § Identify 2 separate digital platforms for delivery of your campaign.
- § Present on powerpoint no more than 5 slides the initial concept of a campaign which delivers a consistent message across your chosen digital platforms.

You will need to consider a wide range of creative approaches and techniques on how to extend your brand's impact through the use of digital technologies and platforms.

You are to study existing marketing of a brand, and propose a new campaign that will be released on at least 2 digital platforms

Fashion Design

Are you an innovative fashion-forward thinker with dreams of transforming the world of luxury fashion? Fashion designers of the future need to balance the needs of both people and the planet.
