We will promptly acknowledge in writing receipt of your cancellation.
- 4.4. You may terminate our Contract after expiry of the Cooling-off Period,

- 6.4. It is important that you notify us of any welfare or medical conditions or disabilities that you have when you make your application so that we can make any reasonable adjustments as may be necessary. You should also notify us of any other medical conditions where special arrangements may be required.
- 6.5. You are required to attend your programme in full.
- 6.6. If your attendance on the programme falls below the limits set by the student handbook (regardless of the reason for any absence), we will, subject to our duty to make reasonable adjustments due to disability, will do the following: provide written notice to you that continued failure to attend the programme might result in your dismissal from the programme. If, following such notice, your attendance on the programme continues to be unsatisfactory in our reasonable discretion, we may:
- prohibit you from sitting the examinations; and
  - on written notice, dismiss you with immediate effect at any time from the programme and terminate our Contract. In these circumstances, you would not be entitled to a full refund: please see our Refund and Compensation Policy. Prior to taking any

- 6.7. If you do not achieve the required pass marks for any examinations, assessments or coursework, as set out in the student handbook, you shall not be entitled to receive a final certificate, or progress to the next academic year or semester (as applicable) and we shall decide, in our reasonable discretion if you may re-sit the examination taking into consideration UKVI guidance and all relevant factors including (without limitation) your attendance on the programme.
7. Our Obligations
- 7.1. We shall provide an education service (programme delivery, tuition, supervision, assessment, and award), as well as ancillary services (academic/learning support and resources, careers support and pastoral support) with reasonable skill and care.
8. Changes to Programmes and Other Variations
- 8.1. The School will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver the programme in accordance with the validated programme specifications located at <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design> otherwise notified to you). Programme start and end dates are not expected to change. However, we may need to alter dates, make variations to the content and methods of delivery of programmes, change tutors and locations from the published timetable, or make other reasonable changes with the overall aim of facilitating or improving the provision of any programme and to ensure that the School delivers the best quality of educational experience to you. Some examples of these changes and the reasons for such changes may include:
- 8.1.1. Keeping our programme content and delivery up to date and relevant. We may need to implement technical adjustments and/or improvements, for example: to reflect developments in academic teaching, research and/or professional standards/requirements; to address any external examiner feedback received as part of their annual reports and/or results from our regular student feedback sessions. To set out further examples, we may make adjustments to aspects of the curriculum – to ensure that this is current and reflects developments in the subject area; the methods of assessment, assessment weightings, and the word length of individual assignments; and adjustments to the learning outcomes and how these are assessed.
- 8.1.2. Changes as a result of a programme review. It is standard practice for the School to undertake a formal review of all of its taught provision in line with national, professional body and regulatory requirements. The aim of each programme review is to ensure, on a periodic basis, that the design, academic standards and quality of learning opportunities of existing programmes remain appropriate to the awards to which they lead and are informed by reference to institutional regulations and policies, national benchmarks and relevant professional and employment demands. Programme review is normally carried out at 6- yearly intervals but can take place at a more frequent interval where required. Programme review may result in certain changes to a programme of study. These changes will be made to enhance the quality of provision we provide to students.
- 8.1.3. To reflect changes in relevant laws, statutory, awarding body, regulatory and/or professional body requirements and/or sector regulation.
- 8.1.4. Altering the location of your programme. For example, following campus consolidation to allow the School to provide the best facilities and academic provision for its students.
- 8.2. In making any such changes, we will aim to keep the changes to the minimum necessary to achieve the required quality of experience and will notify the affected students and applicants in advance about any changes that are required.
- 8.3. If we intend to make a material change to your programme, we will consult with you and take reasonable steps to obtain student consent (and, where appropriate, the consent of applicants who have accepted an offer who may be directly affected by the change) and we will inform the affected students and (where appropriate, affected applicants) if we decide to implement the change(s). If you did not consent to the change and our implementation of the change materially affects you to your detriment, where appropriate, we will work with you to try to reduce the effect on you or find an appropriate solution. Some examples of a material change include:
- A change of award or programme title.
  - A change to the availability of or discontinuance of a core unit.

- A change to the overall type of assessment for your programme, for example by exams, coursework, or practical assessment, etc (or a combination of these).
- 8.4. If any change we make pursuant to term 8.1 above materially affects you to your detriment, you may withdraw from the programme, terminate our Contract immediately by written notice and claim a refund under our Refund and Compensation Policy by following our complaints procedure at https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design/london-school-regulatory-documentation
9. Events Outside Our Control
- 9.1. The School will do all that it reasonably can to provide the Course, related educational and other services, and facilities as described in the material information set out on its website, in the prospectus or in other documents issued to appropriately enrolled students as described. Sometimes circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the School which could not have been prevented even if the School had taken reasonable care ("Events Outside the Our Control") mean that we are prevented from, hindered, or delayed in providing or otherwise cannot provide such services and facilities. Examples of Events Outside Our Control include (but are not limited to):
- Industrial action by third parties;
  - The unanticipated and/or unavoidable absence or departure of key members of School or specialist staff;
  - Power failure;
  - Acts of terrorism;
  - Pandemics, epidemics, and other threats to public health;
  - Fire;
  - Severe weather conditions;
  - Natural disasters;
  - Political or civil unrest;
  - Damage, interruption, or lack of access to buildings, facilities or equipment;
  - The acts or delays of any governmental or local authority;
  - Legal or regulatory changes;
  - Withdrawal by any government or local authority of any necessary licence;
  - Insufficient uptake of a programme.
- 9.2. Where Events Outside Our Control occur, we will notify you that the events have occurred and will take all reasonable steps to minimise the resultant disruption to those students who are affected, by, for example:
- offering the opportunity where reasonably possible to move to another programme
  - deferring the start date for the programme;
  - delivering the programme in a different way, from another location or online, or at another time;
  - delivering a modified version of the same programme
  - assisting you to transfer to complete the programme at another School location or another institution;
  - delivering other services and facilities in a different way, from a different location or online.
- 9.3. If you are not satisfied with any such steps to mitigate the disruption caused by Events Outside the Our Control you may terminate your contract with the School, and we will follow our Refund and Compensation Policy. Alternatively, you may make a complaint under the Student Complaints Procedure, which will determine:
- any refund of the tuition fees and enrolment fees taking into consideration (where applicable) the proportion of the programme completed at the time of termination of our Contract; and
  - any compensation payable to you under our Refund and Compensation Policy at <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design/london-school-regulatory-documentation>
- 9.4. Where, as a result of Events Outside Our Control, it is necessary to close or discontinue or cease to deliver a programme, the School will follow its Student Protection Plan and its Refund and Compensation Policy. Where Events Outside of Our Control occur and the School is unable to take steps to minimise the resultant disruption to students then neither the School nor you will be liable for the breach of this contract nor for the continued compliance with the contract including the provision of further tuition or services, payment of further fees, making refunds of fees paid or other loss or damage of any kind.
10. Changes to Regulations, Policies and Procedures
- 10.1. The School reserves the right to add to, delete or make reasonable changes to regulations, policies, and procedures where, in the opinion of the School, this will assist in the proper delivery of education.
- 10.2. Changes are usually made for one or more of the following reasons:
- 10.2.1. to ensure that they are fit for purpose;
- 10.2.2. to reflect changes in the external environment, including legal or regulatory changes, changes to funding or financial

- arrangements or changes to government policy, requirements, or guidance;
- 10.2.3. to incorporate sector guidance or best practice;
- 10.2.4. to incorporate feedback from students; and/or
- 10.2.5. to aid in clarity or consistency of approach.
- 10.3. Wherever possible, the School will consult students on the impact of any substantive changes prior to implementation.
- 10.4. Any changes will normally come into effect at the start of the next academic year, although may be introduced during the academic year where the School reasonably considers this to be in the interests of students or where this is required by law or other exceptional circumstances. The School will take all reasonable steps to minimize disruption to students wherever reasonably possible, for example by giving reasonable notice of changes or by phasing in changes, if appropriate.
- 10.5. The updated regulations, policies and procedures will be made available on the School's website and may be publicised by other means so that students are made aware of any changes.
11. Other Services
- 11.1. Other, non-educational services provided by the School to you, for example residential accommodation and sports centre membership, are subject to separate terms and conditions.
- 11.2. You may also enter into separate contractual arrangements with other third parties such as a financial sponsor, the Student Loans Company, your employer (if applicable), or, in relation to work placements or internships, with the organisation providing such work placement or internship to you.
12. Withdrawal, Termination, Programme Transfer and Programme Deferrals.
- 12.1. Withdrawal by you after the Cooling-off Period: After the Cooling-off Period you may still withdraw from the programme and terminate our Contract at any time by giving notice in writing to academicservices.london@istitutomarangoni.com. Withdrawal from the programme and termination of our Contract will take effect from receipt of your written notice. You may be entitled to a full or partial refund as set out in the Refund and Compensation policy.
- 12.2. Withdrawal by us: In addition to any other rights of termination that we may have under these Terms, we may withdraw you from the programme and terminate our Contract immediately by notice in writing if:
- 12.2.1. we decide that you may not continue as a student of the School due to a breach of the student handbook, and/or our Code of Conduct – see: <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design/london-school-regulatory-documentation> or
- 12.2.2. you commit a material breach of our Contract, and if such breach is remediable, you fail to remedy it within 30 days after being notified in writing to do so.
- 12.2.3. In such circumstances, you may be entitled to a full or partial refund as set out in the Refund and Compensation Policy.
- 12.3. Programme Transfers and Deferrals:
- 12.3.1. We may grant programme transfers (transfer from one programme at Istituto Marangoni London to another programme at Istituto Marangoni London) in our absolute discretion provided at all times you apply in writing no later than one week after the commencement of the programme and pay an administration fee of £250.
- 12.3.2. If you are an international student that wishes to transfer your programme to another programme any request to transfer to another programme must comply with the relevant UKVI requirements in force at that time.
- 12.3.3. We may grant programme deferrals in our absolute discretion provided at all times you apply in writing no later than one week after the commencement of the programme and pay an administration fee of £250.
- 12.3.4. If you are an international student a deferral will result in us cancelling your CAS, so you will need to request for a new CAS prior to your deferred programme start date. If you are in the UK when sponsorship is withdrawn, you will have to leave the UK, switch to another visa category, or change sponsor.
13. Data Protection
- 13.1. Please refer to our Privacy Policy at <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/terms-of-use-and-privacy> for details of how we use the information that we collect from you.
- 13.2. You are also advised that any personal data that you provide to us may be shared with our validating partner, Regent's University London. By agreeing to these terms you consent to your personal data being provided to and used by Regent's University London for the purposes of carrying out its obligations under our agreement with them, including being further shared with relevant third parties within Regent's University's data privacy policy for students which can be found here: <https://www.regents.ac.uk/privacy-and-cookies>
14. Liability
- 14.1. Nothing in our Contract shall exclude or limit in any way our liability:
- 14.1.1. for death or personal injury caused by our negligence; or
- 14.1.2. for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 14.2. We do not accept responsibility and expressly exclude liability to the fullest extent possible under the general law for loss or damage to students' property, or for infection of students' equipment caused by computer viruses, and for the consequences of any such damage.
15. Intellectual Property
- 15.1. We own or have the licence to use the intellectual property rights (IPR) in all course materials produced by us (or on our behalf). Course materials must only be used for your own personal study purposes. Course materials may not be shared publicly by you, including on the internet, without our prior consent in writing. Unauthorised public sharing of course materials will constitute misconduct under the Student Code of Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.

If we fail, at any time while these terms are in force, to insist that you perform any of your obligations under these terms, or if we do not exercise any of our rights or remedies under these terms, that will not mean that we have waived such rights or remedies and will not mean that you do not have to comply with those obligations. 17. Complaints
- 17.1. The School recognises there may be occasions where students wish to raise legitimate complaints relating to their programme, or the facilities and services provided by the School. It is important to both students and staff to know that such complaints will be dealt with seriously and transparently, and without fear of recrimination. To ensure that this happens, the School has in place a Student Complaints Procedure which details procedures and parameters for making a complaint, alongside what action may be taken in response to complaints: see – <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design/london-school-regulatory-documentation>
- 17.2. If having exhausted all stages of the School's internal complaints procedure, a student considers that the School has failed to consider and respond to their complaint appropriately, the student can refer their complaint to the awarding body (in respect of validated provision) and then to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education, which provides an independent scheme for the review of student complaints.
- 17.3. If you have a complaint about our admission process, please see our complaints procedure for further information: see – <https://www.istitutomarangoni.com/en/schools/london-school-of-fashion-and-design/london-school-regulatory-documentation>
