Why Firenze?

LOCATION

In Florence, art and culture influence the design of luxury jewelry and accessories, provide an exclusive backdrop for the fashion shows where tomorrow's collections make their debut, and celebrate Italian tailoring traditions and innovation in menswear, addressing a refined and contemporary audience.

Students not only study the creation, practice, care, and promotion of art and fashion, but also the new languages of visual, multimedia, and artistic communication, exploring the intersections between digital arts, media, and modern technologies.

At the same time, they learn to make the most of the city's rich variety of materials and textiles, enhancing them through new concepts of craftsmanship and drawing inspiration from them for the development of future collections.

TARGET

Designed to prepare students for entry into 3-Year degree or Masters programs in Art, depending on their previous level of education. It focuses on providing a first, hands-on, experience in the history and theory of Art, taking advantage of the city of Florence as a living archive of artworks and art practitioners from the Renaissance till today.

A STUDY EXPERIENCE

The Short Courses offer the chance to meet the faculty, experience Istituto Marangoni method and atmosphere, and get a first taste of life at the School.

For many students, they serve as a practical orientation step, helping them decide more confidently whether to pursue an Undergraduate or Master's course.
