Istituto Marangoni Riyadh is launching “Light that moves”, a talent contest with iGuzzini open to candidates applying for the three-year Advanced Diploma program in Interior Design. The initiative is designed to identify and support the next generation of creative talent.

THE CONTEST

The new contest, created by iGuzzini, an international leader in lighting spaces with Istituto Marangoni Riyadh, invites young talents to show what light means for them.

Future students of Istituto Marangoni Riyadh are therefore invited to select an existing project in which light plays an essential role and to explain the reasons for their choice.

The motivation for the choice should be between a minimum of 500 and a maximum of 1,000 words. Projects may be submitted in various formats, including PowerPoint presentations, Pdf format, etc.

A jury composed of representatives from iGuzzini and Istituto Marangoni Riyadh will select the most deserving submissions.

Projects will be evaluated by the jury and ranked based on the following criteria:

- coherence of explanation;
