ISTITUTO MARANGONI MUMBAI SCHOLARSHIP - JANUARY 2026 INTAKE

India's rich heritage of traditional crafts is known and used by many designers locally and globally. The new fashion consumers' 'wokeness' demand stories and transparency of the process and are environmentally and socially conscious.

Aspiring students are invited to submit a proposal to preserve and contemporize Indian crafts in a socially and environmentally responsible context.

Your proposal should demonstrate tradition and innovation. We are looking for originality and creativity. Participants should develop their projects by taking an imaginative, problem-solving approach.

BRIEF FOR UNDERGRADUATE COURSES

The contest aims to offer students the opportunity to exercise their creativity in the fields of Fashion Design, Fashion Styling, Fashion Business, Interior Design.

Please choose one of the following topics/briefs for your project – based on your area of study:

- FASHION DESIGN: Develop a series of design ideas that show new ways of using or adapting a traditional Indian craft skill in contemporary fashion garments – this may be through a capsule collection of 6 looks or in a fashion product line of 6 garments/artifacts. You must create clear illustrations of each outfit and must include a mood board that summarizes the inspiration for the collection and research pages that show where your ideas originated from and your process of developing your original design ideas.
- FASHION BUSINESS: Formulate a business plan based on traditional Indian craft/s in a contemporary fashion or design scenario and propose a project connected to the local market and business practices. You should include your research, both primary and secondary, and a brief marketing plan.
- FASHION STYLING: Propose a concept for a fashion photoshoot promoting traditional Indian crafts to a contemporary consumer (Gen Z) that will run in a luxury fashion magazine. Please include your research, concept/mood board, and story (text) highlighting its ideation by adopting sustainable measures.
- INTERIOR DESIGN: Interpret the identity of the Indian local craft heritage, in an innovative and contemporary context, developing storytelling for a residential space through an interior design proposal. The project will be presented through visual research (topic identification), sketches (concept formulation), and final piece rendering images (made by hand or by computer)

BRIEF FOR POSTGRADUATE COURSES

- LUXURY BRAND MANAGEMENT AND DIGITAL MARKETING: You should submit a proposal for the creation of a luxury brand based on one or more traditional Indian craft targeted to a global consumer. Your proposal should include your market research and a brand identity creation.

BRIEF FOR ONE-YEAR INTENSIVE COURSE

- FASHION DESIGN INTENSIVE: Present 3 creative ideas for a cruise collection for an Italian luxury brand of your choice in a mood-board. Please include your research.
- FASHION STYLING & MULTIMEDIA INTENSIVE: Propose a concept for a fashion photoshoot promoting traditional Indian crafts to a contemporary consumer (Gen Z) that will run in a luxury fashion magazine. Please include your research, concept/mood board and story (text).
- INTERIOR DESIGN INTENSIVE : Propose an interiors project for a luxury hotel room in a city of your choice. The location should influence the design. The project will be presented through visual research (topic identification), sketches (concept formulation) and mood-board.

The projects can be developed in different formats: video animations, PowerPoint presentations, a portfolio of prototypes enriched by music or voice-over, a slideshow/gallery of images, the evolution of their idea in stop-motion, or even a simple video story of the candidate.

The projects must be up to a maximum of 10 slides if it is a PowerPoint presentation, a portfolio, or a gallery.
